Introduction: About this Scheme of Work

Name of the document

This resource is tentatively called 'JFL Japanese Scheme of Work for primary schools 小学校のための日本語授業案'. In this introduction, this document is abbreviated as JSOW. JFL stands for the Japan Foundation London.

Target age group

JSOW is made up of six units (Units 1-6) which are designed to be used for Year 3 children. These six units are the first part of a total of 24 units in the Japanese scheme of work for Key Stage 2 (Years 3-6) of the English Education system. Units 7-24 (for Years 4, 5 and 6) will be developed in the future.

Teaching hours

Each Unit has 6 sessions. Each session is designed for approximately 45 minutes.

If one session is taught each week, one Unit can be covered in half a term and Units 1-6 can be covered in one year.

Reference resources

JSOW is based on:

- ① The KS2 Framework for Languages, department for education and skills, 2005 (KS2Framework)
- ② French a scheme of work for key stage 2, Qualifications and Curriculum Authority, 2007
- ③ The Scheme of Work French Key Stage 2, Training and Development Agency

These resources will be referred as ①, ② and ③ in this 'Introduction'.

They can be free downloaded at the National Centre for Languages Website.

<http://www.cilt.org.uk/primary.aspx>

Contents

- The first page of each unit includes Goals, Expectations, New Language, Learning Objectives Coverage at a Glance and Teaching Tips.
- The rest of the unit shows how Objectives, Learning Outcomes, Language, Activities and Resources are combined and covered in each session.

- Each unit finishes with an 'End' activity. Sometimes it suggests activities that can be done outside of the class, for example, performing the drama they learnt in a school assembly. This may need to be completed outside the regular 45 minutes teaching time.
- Expectations, Outcomes, Learning Objectives and Teaching Activities of JSOW are based on the reference book ① above.
- New language content, Expectations for most of children, End of activity, Links to the key stage 2 framework of JSOW are based on the reference resources ② and ③ above.
- Framework objectives, Main, Learning outcomes, Teaching tips, Resources and important ICT resources, Teacher language and Children's language that are written in each session of the units are based on the reference resources ② and ③.
- Some items such as National curriculum links (with other subjects), detailed lists for Resources and ICT resources can be adopted and added from the reference resources ② and ③.

Main structure

The six units in JSOW and the six sessions in each unit are progressive and connected to each other, as in the following example:

In one unit, the teacher says one verb and children mime the verb. ⇒ In the next unit, children say several verbs. ⇒ In the third unit, children say a short sentence putting a subject and a verb together.

The scripts that are used for JSOW (see the Glossary in this introduction).

For reading or writing activities, specific kanji, hiragana or katakana are used.

For oral activities, the Japanese words and phrases to be learned are written in romaji (roman letters). Note that the long vowels are written using the traditional Hepburn system of Japanese romanisation, which is similar to how it is typed on a computer. For example, the 'o' sound is written in two ways, 'ou' or 'oo', depending on how the word is written in hiragana.

However, 'romaji' is written with only one 'o' following the commonly used way.

Japanese phonemes and letters

Each lesson features a short period of pronunciation practise following the hiragana letters in the aieuo chart. The activity is shown in the section with grey background in each session plan.

By practicing pronunciation every session, children can develop good listening and pronunciation skills of Japanese as well as understand the link between the sounds and the hiragana letters. Some teachers may also use this time to develop reading skills of basic hiragana letters.

Goals related to the Japanese scripts and reading

By the end of Unit 6, children are expected to understand that 1) Japanese has different writing systems compared with English, 2) there are three systems and 3) each hiragana letter is linked with one sound. Children will be expected to begin reading letters and words during Year 4 (Units 7-12).

Glossary for Japanese scripts kanji	One of the three Japanese scripts. Kanji are symbols of Chinese origin that represent meaning. In the JSOW units 1-6, only a few kanji are introduced only to explain what kanji is.

hiragana	The second of the three Japanese scripts. The basic system is comprised of 48 hiragana letters. Each hiragana represents a sound. Small children in Japan begin to learn reading letters with hiragana.
katakana	The third of the three Japanese scripts. Mainly used for writing words of foreign origin. In the JSOW Units 1-6, it is only used for writing children's names. Katakana is based on exactly the same sound system with hiragana.
kana	Kana means hiragana and katakana.
romaji	Roman letters. It was developed in the 19 th century for foreigners to learn Japanese. It is not used by Japanese people for standard writing. Now, it is used for typing Japanese on word processors.

Resources

Four download-free teaching materials especially developed or edited for the JSOW are available on the JF London website:

- 1) Japanese alphabet ('aieuo') chart in romaji and hiragana.
- 2) PowerPoint Presentation slides for 'Ookii kabu (The Enormous Turnip)', edited for JFL KS2 version
- 3) Script for 'Ookii kabu (The Enormous Turnip)', edited for JFL KS2 version
- 4) Script for 'Momotarou (The Peach Boy)'.

Free resources available for download are suggested in the far right column of the JSOW table. All the websites are available in English. The following abbreviations are used for the websites.

Unit1 Ohayou! おはよう! (Hi!)

In this unit children learn to introduce themselves and greet others. They begin to respond to and ask questions about name and age. They discuss linguistic diversity within their class. They understand where Japan is and that Japanese is spoken in Japan. They begin to understand there are three scripts in written Japanese and how they are used.

New Language	Expectations
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Greetings e.g. Ohayou, (Hi! for the morning), Ohayou gozaimasu, (Good morning), Sayounara (Good bye), Konnichiwa (Hello/Good afternoon). Hai (here!/yes) and Iie (no) ...kun/san (Mr..., Ms...) among each other Sensei (Sir/Miss) towards the teacher or (family name) + sensei as Mr./Mrs/Miss.... Question forms: rising intonation e.g. Onamae wa? (What is your name?) and particle 'ka' e.g. Nan sai desu ka? (How old are you?) Noun + desu (name + desu, age + desu) numbers 1-10: ichi, ni, san, yon*, go, roku, nana*, hachi, kyuu, juu age: nanasai (seven years old), hassai (eight years old) Phonic focus: introduction of the basic 45 kana sounds 	Most children will <ul style="list-style-type: none"> say and respond to the morning and farewell phrases answer the register recognise question forms and reply to the question with yes or no address each other using the appropriate suffix address the teacher using the appropriate suffix reply to questions (name and age) give a short self-introduction (name and age) understand and use numbers 1-10 begin to pronounce some kana sounds following the teacher as a model gain knowledge about Japan, where it is, how the weather is, its famous products, etc be aware of linguistic diversity in the class understand that English is spoken in countries other than the UK begin to understand that the Japanese writing system is different from the English alphabetical system

*Some numbers have two names. 4 can be pronounced shi or yon and 7 can be pronounced shichi or nana. Nana is chosen in this unit because nana sai (seven years old) is also introduced (you cannot say "shichi sai").

Unit2 Uta to Geemu うたとゲーム (Songs and games)

In this unit children listen and respond to a well-known Japanese song. The song used here is 'Kaeru no uta' (The frog song), but you can use an alternative. Children learn or extend their knowledge of numbers to 20 and play games. They follow simple instructions for making おりがみ (origami), although you can choose a different activity in which children listen and respond to instructions. Children learn how to talk about their favourite games.

The kana sound learning process continues to the end of Unit6.

Objectives are listed in brackets.

Keep using the classroom phrases as much as possible and encourage children to use phrases for real purposes.

Section	Objectives	Learning outcomes Children...	Language	Activity
Unit3 Sec.1	O3.3 IU3.3	Perform simple communicative task using simple phrases. Identify social conventions; know some facts about one country.	Akemashite omedetou! (Happy New Year!)	(Suitable for January) Practise the new year greeting and greet each other.	RSN Lesson 9 SON C3 (electronic presentation about New Year in Japan)
	(L3.2)	• begin to understand the link between some phonemes and hiragana letters (MB: ALIGNMENT)	a, i, u, e, o (あいうえお) ka, ki, ku, ke, ko (かきくけこ)	Review the 10 kana sounds a – ko following the aiueo chart. Play a game: Teacher points at or shows one of the hiragana letters and children say it referring to the aiueo chart.	SON L3 (including some games)
	LLS O3.3	• Understand and take part in a simple party game • Use physical response, mime and gestures to show they understand a sequence of language	1-20 (Review)	Play some games for reviewing counting 1-20 e.g. hanetsuki (a traditional Japanese game for New Year holiday which is similar to badminton without a net) or other counting games e.g. tamairi (competitive activity)	RSN Lesson 5 SON C2
Unit3 Sec.2	(O3.2)	• Copy a sound spoken by the teacher to practise pronunciation.	sa, shi, su, se, so (さしすせそ)	Imitate the pronunciation of the model (e.g. teacher) following each letter on the aiueo chart. Pay attention to shi which does not follow the pattern.
	O3.2 KAL IU3.2	• Recognise that months are counted with numbers (1-12) in Japanese • Understand that there may be different ways of saying one thing in Japanese just as in English • Begin to say the months of the year	gatsu for counting months ichigatsu (1+month=January) nigatsu (2+month=Feb.) sangatsu (Mar.), shigatsu (Apr.), gogatsu (May), rokgatsu (June), shichigatsu (July), hachigatsu (Aug.), kugatsu (Sep.), juugatsu (Oct.), juichigatsu (Nov), junigatsu (Dec.)	Introduce the names of the 12 months. Ask children if they recognised the pattern. Ask which month sound different from just counting 1-12 (April, shigatsu , and July, shichigatsu) Count all the month together focusing on the pronunciation. Play a game. The teacher says the name of a month in Japanese and children pick a piece of paper which has the month in English, or point at the page of a calendar that is displayed on the wall.
Unit3	(L3.2)	• pronounce some kana sounds	sa, shi, su, se, so (さしすせそ)	Review the s-line sounds following

Sec.3		phonemes and spellings.	linking each sound with a hiragana letter	そ)	the aiueo chart. Focus on the shi sound. Practise a few words which include 's' sound such as shigatsu from this unit.
	O3.1 O3.4 O3.3	Listen and respond to simple rhymes, songs and stories. Respond to the teacher's instructions. Perform simple communication task using single words, phrases and short sentences.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Join in with a simple song Recognise their birthday month when they hear it Say their birthday month in groups Complete simple details on a birthday card 	Otanjoubi omedetou! おたんじょうび おめでとう! (Happy birthday!) ...gatsu desu. (It's ...month)	Sing the Japanese version of 'Happy Birthday'. Review the month names. Children stand up when they hear their birth month (which the teacher says) and make a group. In groups, children practise and say their birth month. The others respond with 'Happy Birthday!' which literally means 'Birthday, congratulations!'	(See the song words at the end of this unit) - A video clip of UK children singing the song is planned to be uploaded to the JFL website sometime in 2011
Unit3 Sec.4	(O3.2)	Recognise and respond to sound patterns and words.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Copy a sound spoken by the teacher to practise pronunciation 	ta, chi, tsu, te, to (たちってと)	Imitate the pronunciation of the model (e.g. teacher) following each letter on the aiueo chart. Pay attention to the irregular sounds chi and tsu .
	O3.4 O3.3 L3.3 L3.3	Listen attentively and understand instructions. Perform simple communication task using single words, phrases and short sentences. Experiment with writing of simple letters. Write a simple message using a model.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> use physical response, mime and gesture to show they understand a series of instructions Begin to understand how to copy hiragana letters 	Simple instruction for origami process: (orimasu) (fold), (harimasu) (to glue) (kakimasu) (to write) Say numbers to instruct stroke orders: 1(ichi), 2(ni), 3(san) ...	Make a simple origami model following the teacher's instructions. Complete a birthday card following the teacher's model (see the end of this unit for details) Glue the origami to the card Display the card in the class and then use for a real purpose later by giving it to his/her family or friend
Unit3 Sec.5	(L3.2)	Make links between some phonemes and spellings.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> pronounce some kana sounds linking each sound with a hiragana letter 	ta, chi, tsu, te, to (たちってと)	Review the t-line sounds following the aiueo chart. Focus on the chi and tsu sounds. Practise a few words which include 't' sound such as tanjoubi, ichi , from this unit.
	O3.3 KAL LLS	Perform simple communicative tasks using single words, phrases and short sentences. Hear word classes Play games to aid memorisation.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Recognise some action verbs Understand and take part in a simple party game Begin to recognise verbs in masu form 	These action words will be useful for the game: (arukimasu) (walk), (nemasu) (sleep) Add a few more basic action words to play 'Simon'	Review (Session 4)/introduce a few simple action verbs. Ask children if there is anything in common. (ending with masu) Review the verbs by playing games. 1) Play Musical Statues. When music stops, freeze as a statue

				Says' (kikimasu) (listen/hear) (yomimasu) (read) (isshoni) (together)	posing to match the verb which the teacher calls out e.g. kakimasu . 2) Play Simon Says using the verbs in masu form. Use ' isshoni ' instead of a phrase 'Simon says'.
Unit 3 Sec.6	L3.2	Make links between some phonemes and spellings, and read aloud familiar words.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> begin to understand the link between some phonemes and hiragana letters (MB – ALIGNMENT) 	A few words with the 20 hiragana sounds they have learned so far e.g. う た uta (song), い ち ichi (one), す き suki (like)	Review: Teacher points at one of the 20 sounds in the chart at random and children say the sound. Playing a Code Breaking game: Show a familiar word written in hiragana letters that have been learned so far. Children read out each letter referring to the aiueo chart and guess what the word is.	Other games related to kana sounds using hiragana letters are in SON L3
	LLS O3.3 O3.2	Ask someone to clarify or repeat Perform simple communicative tasks using single words, phrases and short sentences. Recognise and respond to sound patterns and words.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand questions about what activities they like Reply to the above question 	... ga suki desu . (I like...) e.g. Bingo ga suki desu . Karuta ga suki desu . Jan-ken ga suki desu . Origami ga suki desu . Sugoroku ga suki desu .	Review the phrase to express likes (Unit 2 Session 6) and activity names they did so far: Children make a group according to the activity preference, and say what they like. Pay attention to the link word ' ga '. Update the word bank with the new words they learned in this unit.	Alternative: Teacher asks ' Nani o shimashou ka? ' (What shall we do?) and children suggest a game by using ' ...o shimashou! ' (Let's play ...) or just give the name of their favourite game.
End					With a digital camera, children take photographs of each other doing some of the activities covered in this unit. They use these to prepare a short presentation about the things they like in their Japanese class.

See next page for the related resources.

- Karuta (snap): each card has one hiragana letter printed on it. One person (teacher) reads a word that begins with one of the letters. A person who touches the card the fastest keeps it. The person, who collects the cards most, wins.

- Words for 'Happy Birthday' in Japanese:

おたんじょうび おめでとぅ! Otanjoubi omedetou! (Happy birthday to you!)

おたんじょうび おめでとぅ! Otanjoubi omedetou! (Happy birthday to you!)

おめでとぅ (name)さん・くん Omedetou, (name) san/kun. (sing 'kun' for a boy's birthday and 'san' for a girl's) (Happy birthday dear ...)

おたんじょうび おめでとぅ! Otanjoubi omedetou! (Happy birthday to you!)

Example for birthday cards

Birthday/Congratulations card template

- 1) Each child gets the card template with the 'Omedetou! (Congratulations!)' phrase printed with outlined letters. The teacher explains that they will colour the letters following the same rules that Japanese people follow to write letters. The teacher also explains that the two letters after the name are yori which means 'from' and the sender's name should be written above the underline.
- 2) The teacher demonstrates how to write the first letter お(o) in the correct order. It may be helpful to use an interactive whiteboard for this purpose. The teacher counts the order (which is often called the stroke order) using numbers e.g. ichi, ni, san ...
- 3) First, children practise writing the letter by imitating the teacher's movements by writing the letter in the air saying the stroke together.
- 4) Children colour in the first letter printed on the card with a colour pen of their choice.
- 5) Repeat the process 2-4 to colour in the second letter. Children may use a different colour for the second letter.
- 6) When the entire phrase is coloured in, children copy or cut and paste the sender's name (in katakana) on the underlined part at the bottom of the paper.
- 7) At this stage, children may not be ready to write the receiver's name in Japanese. If they want to use the card in real life, they can write the receiver's name in English.

Alternatively, try making a card electronically.

Unit4 Atama, kata, hiza, ashi あたま、かた、ひざ、あし (head, shoulders, knees and feet)

Unit 5 Tomodachi ともだち (Friends)

In this unit children listen and respond to a story. The story used here is called 'Ookii kabu' (おおきい かぶ The Enormous Turnip) and the text and the flash cards in electronic slide showing programme are provided as a separate file of the package/folder. Children learn to talk about animals, describing their movement. Children add to their repertoire of verbs and continue to gain confidence in using Japanese in simple communication. An alternative story to the one suggested here can be used.
