APPLICATION FORM FREE Course at the

The Japan Foundation London Language Centre (JFLLC)

- Exploring Okinawa the first in a series of courses planned for 2007/08

Japan is often perceived as a country of harmony and homogeneity. The real Japan however is rich in cultural and social diversity. This four-week course will focus on Okinawa, a region which is known for its distinct history and culture.

Sources will be newspapers, magazines, audiovisual clips from films and TV programmes and interviews – classes will be held in Japanese

6 June – 27 June (Wednesdays, 4 weeks) 18:30 – 20:30

Deadline for applications: Friday 25 May 2007

Japanese Proficiency:

Classes will be held in Japanese, therefore participants must have an Upper Intermediate level of Japanese (JLPT level 2 and upwards). Learners will be encouraged to engage in intercultural comparisons in Japanese with fellow course participants.

Please reserve a place for me on the above course!
