

JAPAN FOUNDATION

Preparing for the JLPT

Useful Sites

<http://momo.jpf.go.jp/sushi/>

This site offers a small test at the level of JLPT level 4. It aims to measure the examinee's basic Japanese ability. It provides you with your score and even gives you a certificate!

<http://www.mlcjapanese.co.jp/EFrame.htm>

This site is run by Meguro Language Centre, Tokyo, Japan. It offers the free download of vocabulary and kanji lists, and lists of grammar points for JLPT (all levels). It also contains the quizzes, worksheets etc.

Online Centre for Japanese Studies

http://www.yamasa.org/ocjs/english/programs/jlpt_kanji.html

This site is run by the Yamasa Institute, Okazaki, Japan. It offers a list of the required kanji for all levels of the JLPT, and shows the correct stroke order.

The kanji Site

<http://www.kanjisite.com>

A detailed guide to hundreds of Japanese kanji. It includes the JLPT syllabus lists for levels 2,3 and 4, a search function and random testing.

Kanji-a-day com

<http://www.kanji-a-day.com/kanji.php>

It contains lists of vocabulary and kanji for all levels. You can also download them as an Excel file.

If your computer allows you to read Japanese scripts, the following websites are also available.

Tokyo Tokyo Tokyo

<http://www.asahi-net.or.jp/~tx2h-mtok/>

You are given 10 seconds to read kanji! It offers a kanji quiz for JLPT from level 2 to 4. Hands-on site to check your kanji. Practice of verb conjugation is also available. This site is in both English and Japanese, but only the Japanese site offers the kanji quiz.

Japanese Teaching Material Library

<http://n-lab.kir.jp/library/mondaidb/index.html>

This site offers exercises for JLPT at levels 1-3. You can search types of questions (vocabulary, grammar or both). You can also download the lists of questions as an Excel file.

JLPT Yoso Mondaishu

<http://www.bl.mmtr.or.jp/~idu230/his/wa/tesuto/yosomenu.htm>

This site offers sample questions for JLPT at levels 1 and 2.

JLPT Moji · Goi

<http://www.jaist.ac.jp/~tera/fie/8-m1-1.html>

This site offers a large number of exercises for reading kanji and vocabulary for JLPT levels 1 and 2.

Last updated 18 October 2005.

Please do let us know if any of the above links are no longer valid and we will update our information as soon as possible:

info.language@jpf.org.uk