

First StepOutNet Training Day - Expanding the JFLLC Stepping Out Programme -

StepOutNet Training Day
Thursday, 23 November 2006
at
The Japan Foundation London Language Centre (JFLLC)
9:45 – 15:30

In order to meet the demand from schools for the delivery of taster sessions in Japanese, the JFLLC is setting up a network of private tutors, teachers, volunteers and enthusiasts to help deliver the new StepOutNet Programme. This first free training day is designed to give participants the opportunity to meet other members of the network, familiarise themselves with the Japanese teaching scene at UK schools, find out about resources and learn to deliver Japanese taster lessons as part of International or Japan Days held at primary and secondary schools. The JFLLC is hoping that by expanding StepOutNet more schools will be inspired to offer Japanese as part of their programme of study. Don't miss this exciting opportunity!
