

日本語教師のための力- CHIKARA- 研修会

CHIKARA Training Session for Teachers of Japanese (FREE)

Teaching Japanese with CHIKARA: Designing an Effective Lesson

For GCSE Japanese teachers and others interested in the CHIKARA resources

Tuesday 30 October 2007

13:30 – 16:30

The Japan Foundation London Language Centre (JFLLC)

CHIKARA is a comprehensive set of teaching resources to support the GCSE curriculum. It is the first resource of its kind designed for the UK Japanese classroom. The CHIKARA resources are free to download from the JFLLC website:

http://www.jpff.org.uk/language/teaching_chikara.php

The JFLLC is pleased to announce the first in a series of practical sessions given by JFLLC Chief Language Advisor Hiromi Kijima to follow on from the summer's introductory course.

- The purposes of this training session are:
 - To learn the basic structure of a lesson plan for a beginner Japanese class
 - To find out how to incorporate CHIKARA resources effectively in the lesson plan
- The session will be conducted in EASY Japanese
- A Certificate of Attendance will be presented following the session
- A bento lunch will be provided if ordered and paid for in advance by cheque for £5.50
