

CHIKARA Update Workshops 2009-10

Aimed at Teachers of GCSE Japanese

The Japan Foundation London Language Centre will be running a series of free workshops throughout 2009-10, aimed at teachers of GCSE Japanese. The workshops will focus on the CHIKARA Resources for GCSE Japanese, which were created by the Japan Foundation in 2008, with generous support from the Great Britain Sasakawa Foundation.

The aims of these workshops are to help you improve your skills in making new resources to match a particular syllabus, and to give you an insight into how the GCSE in Japanese is changing.

All workshops will be held at the Japan Foundation London Language Centre (JFLLC). Both school-based teachers and private tutors can sign up, and there is no course fee. We are now accepting applications for Part 1. For more details about Part 2, please check our website or sign up to the JLE-UK email list. You do not need to attend both parts of the series.
