

StepOutNet School Visits Programme

Practical Classroom Ideas for Japanese Language Tasters (part TWO)

Friday 30 November 2007

The Japan Foundation London Language Centre (JFLLC)

12:15 – 15:30

In November 2006 the JFLLC launched its StepOutNet School Visits Programme designed for private tutors, teachers, volunteers and enthusiasts interested in delivering Japanese taster lessons at UK primary and secondary schools. Over 50 volunteers have since signed up as StepOutNet members, a number of school visits and training days have taken place, and more lessons are due to be delivered by volunteers in the near future.

This NEW free training session aims to give StepOutNet members some practical ideas for their classroom tasters, including songs, games, origami, card-making and use of the TOBU video. You will also have the chance to hear from recent StepOutNet volunteers about how their visits went.

We hope that many of you will be able to join us on the day, and please remember that all members are invited, regardless of whether they attended previous training days.

A light lunch will be provided courtesy of the Japan Foundation.
