UCL-Japan Youth Challenge 2023 Exciting summer experience with UK sixth form college & Japanese high school students

Are you interested in Japanese culture? Or are you learning Japanese? Do you want to help pre-university students shape their future studies and careers?

We are looking for volunteers who can join our on campus summer school programme at the end of July 2023 to help participants make the most of the summer school programme!

The UCL-Japan Youth Challenge is an annual summer school programme for pre-university students from UK sixth form colleges and Japanese high schools for cultural interaction through various educational activities and events held at UCL (University College London) and the University of Cambridge, since 2015, celebrating the 150th anniversary of Japan's Choshu Five and Satsuma 19, all of whom studied at UCL in 1863 and 1865 respectively.
