

Japan Information Day 2019: Education & Research opportunities

Friday 17 May 2019 at Embassy of Japan, London

With an increasing number of tourists as well as international students choosing Japan as their destination, British interest in Japan, including its higher education and research institutions, has been growing. The day aims to provide relevant professionals with information about various opportunities for graduates in teaching, studying and conducting research in Japan. This is the only annual event in the UK where attendees can learn about the diverse programmes in these fields.
