Welcome to JF news
UK, The Japan Foundation
London's new e-newsletter.

Following the recent donation to the Japan Foundation and its sister organization, the Japanese National Railways, the British government has opened the possibility of creating a new British-Japan Foundation. This new foundation is set to be launched in the UK in November 2003.

For more information, click here.

A Tale of Two Cities

Tour of London

The city of London, the financial heart of the UK, will host a special exhibition and events celebrating the life and works of Charles Dickens. The exhibition will cover Dickens' life, his writing, and his influence on modern-day London. For more information, visit the exhibition website at www.london.gov.uk/dickens

Japan Foundation

Events in the UK

A list of exhibitions in the UK, as well as various events and programs hosted by the Japan Foundation, are listed below. For more information, visit the official website at www.japanfoundation.co.uk

StepOut/Western Day

Designed to introduce students to key aspects of contemporary Japanese life, this event will feature a range of activities such as traditional Japanese dance, tea ceremonies, and demonstrations of modern Japanese music. For more information, visit the event website at www.stepoutwest.com

Japanese Studies is a Sublime Course

2007 Japan Foundation Study Tour for Secondary School Students

The Japan Foundation is organizing a study tour for secondary school students to Japan in December 2007. The tour will include visits to cultural and educational institutions, as well as opportunities to experience traditional Japanese culture. For more information, visit the tour website at www.japantour.org

Kawanagushi and the International Novel

Laissez les Eléments is organizing an international conference on Japanese literature. The conference will feature presentations on contemporary Japanese literature, including works by authors such as Haruki Murakami and Yukio Mishima. For more information, visit the conference website at www.lesselements.org

Japan Foundation Study Support Programme

The Japan Foundation offers a study support programme for students interested in studying in Japan. The programme provides funding for students to attend university courses in Japan. For more information, visit the programme website at www.japantour.org/study

JF news UK has been sent to you because you expressed an interest in receiving information about Japanese culture and language. If you no longer wish to receive JF news UK, please unsubscribe by clicking the link at the bottom of the email.