Half Term Courses for Teachers to be held at the Japan Foundation

The Japan Foundation is setting out a timetable of some select courses for teachers of Japanese language as a major in the United Kingdom.

Date: 26-30 May 2000
Venue: The Japan Foundation, London

For more information, click here.

New Talking Contemporary Japan Course!

We are very excited to announce the new class, "Talking about Contemporary Japan: Exploring Japan Through Short Stories." This course will be held Monday through Friday, 10-4, and will cover topics such as "What's in a Name" and "The Women of the 90s." For more information, please click here.

Interactive Japanese Reflexives Course for Teachers

Interactive Japanese Reflexives is a course designed for those who wish to learn more about Japanese reflexives. It will be held for two days, with opportunities for teachers to practice using reflexives in a variety of contexts.

For more information, click here.

Women and Shapers: Japan-UK Relations Seminar Series Gets Underway

Professor Ine Tsutsumi (Japan) and Professor Valerie Zibbitt (UK) will be the key speakers at the "Women and Shapers: Japan-UK Relations Seminar Series," which will be held on May 26th. The seminar will focus on the role of women in the development of Japan-UK relations.

For more information, click here.

Changes to Local Project Support Programme: Nanosecond Studies and Intellectual Exchange

The Japan Foundation has made some changes to its Local Project Support Programme, which will focus on nanosecond studies and intellectual exchange. Teachers who are interested in submitting proposals are encouraged to contact the Japan Foundation for more information.

For more information, click here.