This page contains information about the Japan Foundation's activities, particularly focusing on their exhibition in the New Year and an art exhibition featuring calligraphy and painting. It also includes updates on future events and conferences, as well as information about the Japan Conference for Schools held on Jan 20th-21st. There's a section on "Holding the date for our 4th Museum and Supporters: Japan - UK Connections investment" which might be of interest.