Guidelines and Application Form for The Japan Foundation Annual Grant Programmes for FY 2008 have been released. Guidelines can be obtained in this office or downloaded from our Web site. Please contact this office in advance of your application before working.

Click here for further information about our today.

Performing Arts Japan Programmes for Europe (PAJE) - Deadline 12 October 2007
The deadline for the annual grant programme available to UK-based organisations planning Japan-related performing arts projects in the UK and other European countries is fast approaching. 12 October 2007.

Click here for more information.

Japanese Cinema for Busy People
Thanks to all those who purchased the free copies of "Japanese cinema: Japanese Cinema for Busy People." The lecture series is now full, but if you would like to get your name on the waiting list in case any spaces become available, please e-mail us.

Click here to find out more about "Japanese Cinema for Busy People.

Japanese Tasters at European Day of Languages
On Wednesday 28 September the Japan Foundation hosted two rehearsals for Jane Balfour's Summer School in Hannover. A group of Japanese language teachers were arranged as part of the City of Hannover's European Day of Languages.

Click here to read a report of the day's Japanese activities.

The Language Show 2007
The Japan Foundation, in association with ANB and JJDOO, will be preparing a stand at this year's Language Show.

For more information on the show and our contribution, click here.

The 12th Symposium on Japanese Language Education in Europe
This year's Symposium was held at SOAS in London, with plenary sessions from a number of experts in the field, including the Japan Foundation Centre for Language Promotion, Tokyo, Professor Kiyohara.

Click here for a report on the 3 day event.

Japanese Studies | Un手续费

Joint Symposium by JRC at SOAS and Doshisha University - Craft: Enterprise Tradition, Renovation and Creation
A joint symposium at the Japan Research Centre at SOAS and Doshisha University, in conjunction with the Japan Foundation and the Japanese Ambassadors Office, will be held at SOAS on 18-19 September. The symposium will examine the ways in which traditional industries are being maintained and developed in Japan. Speakers include Doshisha University, Tokyo University, University of Tokyo, and the Japan Foundation.

To find out more, click here.