A Life More Ordinary: A Portrait of Contemporary Japanese Life on Film

The Japan Foundation Touring Film Programme is February with a season of films depicting the life of ordinary Japanese people.

For more information, click here.

Ooh! Japan at the Unicorn Theatre

A double bill of Japanese theatre performed straight from Japan.

Click here for more information.

Comming Soon - A Passage to the Future

Wimbledon Art Gallery will hold the only screening of the Japan Foundation Touring Exhibition.

For more information, click here.

The Third Japanese Speech Contest for University Students

On Saturday 29 February, 12 students from leading universities in Japan will compete in the third annual Japan Foundation Speech Contest.

Click here to read more about the day and the winners.

Japanese Week at Barn Beacon Language College

From 16-20 January, Barn Beacon Language College held its first Japanese themed week, which included a cultural showcase and a talk by novelist Haruki Murakami.

To read a report on the week’s events, click here.

Opportunities and Challenges for the UK: Lessons for Japan and the UK

Barnes, the leading centre for the study of Japan and the UK, is holding the seminar, ‘Lessons for Japan and the UK’.

Click here for more information.

Japan Foundation

For full details of all the touring programmes in Japan and the UK, please visit our website or contact us.

The Japan Foundation

New York Office
3 Columbus Circle, 4th Floor
New York, NY 10019
USA

T: (+1) 212.922.3577
F: (+1) 212.922.3578

London Office
41 North Audley Street
London W1K 7DA
UK

T: (+44) 207.290.9190
F: (+44) 207.290.9191

Taipei Office
110, Beijing East Road
Taipei, Taiwan

T: (+886) 2.2732.9500
F: (+886) 2.2732.9501

Tokyo Office
8F, Roppongi Hills, Roppongi,
Minato-ku, Tokyo 106-0042
Japan

T: (+81) 3.3459.0006
F: (+81) 3.3459.0007

JFnews is a service provided by JFnews.org.jp

This newsletter can be subscribed to via subscription via an email address.

www.japanfoundation.org.uk

Twitter: @jfculture