

Publication of Japanese Popular Prints by Rebecca Salter

24/7/2006

The Japan Foundation supported the publication of Japanese Popular Prints by British artist Rebecca Salter and is pleased to announce its recent publication.

This book examines the uses of woodblock printing in an everyday context. For more information on this fascinating work, visit A&C Black's website.

In conjunction with the publication of this book, the Japan Foundation is holding a talk by Rebecca Salter. The night will also include a chance to hear more about this captivating book.

Published by A&C Black, London and is available from A&C Black's online store:

www.acblack.com

ISBN 0-7136-6517-3