

Japan Foundation Group Study Tour to Japan for Secondary School Teachers and Administrators – Inviting Applications

12/04/2007

The Japan Foundation is now inviting applications for the 2007 Japan Foundation Group Study Tour to Japan for Secondary Teachers in December. This is a fully-funded two week tour of Japan offering an introduction to Japan's society, culture and education system. The Study Tour is for full-time secondary school teachers who teach about Japan and Administrators involved in curriculum development.
