

Win up to £1000
worth of prizes!!

Japan Webpage Contest for Schools

Your chance to shout about your school's Japan-related activities!

Open to:

Any UK school that is teaching Japanese or doing any kind of project related to Japan. Your school does not need to be teaching Japanese to enter.

To Enter:

- > Make a webpage about the work that your school is doing with Japanese or Japan-related projects.
- > This can be a blog, wiki, or a page on your school's website.
- > You can enter an existing webpage or create a new webpage from scratch.

Organisers and Partners:

The contest is organised by the Japan Foundation London and supported by the Association for Language Learning (ALL), the British Council, the Great Britain Sasakawa Foundation and the Japan Society.

Gold, Silver and Public Vote Award winners will get to present their website at a public presentation & awards ceremony in March 2015!

Prizes:

★ Gold

£500 cash + £500 worth of vouchers or Japanese resources

★ Silver

£300 cash + £300 worth of vouchers or Japanese resources

★ Public Vote Awards (Primary and Secondary)

Trophy and fantastic selection of Japanese resources

★ Shortlisted Entries

Fantastic selection of Japanese resources

DEADLINE TO ENTER: Monday 12th January 2015

To apply, visit: www.JapanWebpageContest.org.uk

JAPAN FOUNDATION

Contest Aims

1. To showcase the various Japan-related projects that UK schools are doing, in order to inspire teachers in other schools and promote teaching about Japan and Japanese language to the wider community.

2. To raise the profile of Japanese and Japan within the school, and motivate schools already teaching Japanese or doing Japan-related projects to continue this excellent work.

3. To motivate the students who have been involved in learning about Japan or Japanese language at the school.

We hope the contest will also benefit participating schools by contributing to teachers' and students' intercultural understanding, cross-curricular awareness and ICT skills.

Getting Started

Here are just some ideas of what you could feature on your webpage:

- A project with your Japanese partner school
- A report on your school's visit to Japan
- A report on your school's Japan Day
- Japanese or Japan-related resources that you have made to help students
- Japanese language work made by students
- Other Japan-related work by students, e.g. from geography, history, art, sports, music, intercultural understanding, cross-curricular lessons
- Students' experiences of learning about Japan or Japanese language
- An overview of Japanese at your school

See previous Japan Webpage Contest for Schools entries at www.JapanWebpageContest.org.uk

How to Enter

1. Visit www.japanwebpagecontest.org.uk for full details and to download an entry form.
2. Create or edit your webpage. You can enter an existing webpage or create a new webpage from scratch. Visit the contest website for lots of tips and ideas.
3. Submit your entry form by 12 January 2015.

Judging criteria

1. Design and ease of use
2. Breadth of content
3. Quality of content
4. Originality and replicability
5. How closely the webpage achieves its aims
6. How closely the webpage achieves the three main aims of the contest

Cast your vote!

Visit the contest webpage after the deadline and vote for your favourite shortlisted entry!

DEADLINE TO ENTER: Monday 12th January 2015

www.JapanWebpageContest.org.uk

The Japan Foundation London

info.language@jpf.org.uk 020 7436 6698 www.jpf.org.uk

Russell Square House, 10-12 Russell Square, London, WC1B 5EH

JAPAN FOUNDATION